Class Will

We, the seniors of Webster High School, Jackson County, State of North Carolina, do hereby, this day, will our most honored gifts to our successors.

I, Joan Buchanan, will my ability to endure school life after becoming a "Mrs." to Rosayln Mills.

I, Curtis Buchanan, will my oratorical ability to Pritchard Greene.

I, Lona McKee, will my elegance to Sue Ensley.

I, Billy Buchanan, will my title of being the greatest humorist since Mark Twain to Clifton Jones and Carter Deitz.

I, Christine Angel, will my trustworthyness as a class treasurer to Doris Frizzell.

I, Katherine Buchanan, will my talent for singing to Ethel Hall.

I, Billy Joe Cowan, will my class spirit to Joe Hall and H. D. Pangle.

I, Carroll Tatham, will all my memories of the agriculture class to Nita Deitz, Emma Lee Sutton and Magdaline Ridley.

I, Sally Bumgarner, will my faithfulness to library work to Freddie Jo McConnell and Ann Ammons.

I, Tom Ed Davis, will my ability to select a schedule containing three consecutive study periods to Danny Cowan.

I, Doris Painter, will my sweet disposition to Anne Henson.

We, Dorothy Deitz and Thelma Sutton, will our ability to keep the office calendar up to date to Kate Deitz and Patsy Collins.

I, Edward Henson, will my popularity to B. C. Jones and Verlin Conner.

I, Grace Buchanan, will my shorthand pads to my sister, Ellen Buchanan, so that she may have continued practice in reading shorthand.

We, Emily Ashe and Barbara Buchanan, will our quietness and sincere ways to Hillard Beck and Hugh Davis.

I, Louise Buchanan, will my dependability to Louise Gribble.

I, Betty Lou Cowan, will my industrious efforts to keep the school store clean to Grace Davis.

We, Grover Deitz and Kenneth Buchanan, will our true friendship to Doyle Alexander and Guy Blanton.

I, Geraldine Deitz, will my courage in athletics to Dessie and Essie Barnes.

Last, but by all means not least, we leave a dear and true friend, our home room teacher, Mrs. Davis.
